

My One Desire, Dear Lord 531

1. My one de - sire, dear Lord, with You to walk; And
 2. While in that sweet con - verse, as friend to friend, What
 3. With - in that hal - lowed at - mo - sphere with You, My

in that sweet com - mu - nion, day by day, bound - less love would You to me un - fold,
 ev - ery thought with pur - est love im - bued,

So quick - ened be, that I may hear You talk, And
 And truths re - veal, whose worth should far tran - scend Earth's I would re - joice— to see Your vi - sion true— And gar - ner close - ly all that You would say.

 rar - est gems or price - less gifts of gold.
 let my deeds at - test my grat - i - tude.

The words of this hymn are from a poem entitled "Desire" printed in the February 14, 1925 issue of the Christian Science Sentinel. The tune is by 17th-century composer Henry Lawes, considered to be the leading English songwriter of his day.

WORDS: E. Jewel Robinson, alt.
 MUSIC: Henry Lawes, alt.

FARLEY CASTLE
 10.10.10.10.