

Though I May Speak

588

1. Though I may speak with mov - ing words, Which can in -
 2. Though I may give my world - ly goods With - out a
 3. Though I may search the deep - est books, Com - pan - ion
 4. Now I would learn to know this Love Through meek and spire the hu - man heart, But have no love to seal their thought of self or gain, Un - less they bear the fruits of with the wis - est men, God's lov - ing voice still calls to pa - tient min - is - try, Un - til my life has grown a - worth, They are but sham and emp - ty art.

 love, They are as clouds with - out their rain.
 me, It bids me turn and look a - gain.
 new And Love is All - in - all to me.

I Corinthians 13. See hymn 497 for notes about this music.

WORDS: Fenella Bennetts, alt.

MUSIC: British melody; arr. Fenella Bennetts

Words and Music arr. © 2008 Fenella Bennetts

© WALY WALY

L.M.

Alternate arr.: 497