

We Cannot Turn Away from God 591

1. We can-not turn a - way from God Be-cause, which - ev - er
 2. Wheth - er we turn to left or right, To north or south or
 3. Wheth - er we plunge to o - cean trench Or plot our course for
 4. Wheth - er we build for cen - turies hence Or let to - mor - row way we face, Spir - it is there. In ev - ery place, east or west, We meet with Love— and we are blessed. far - thest space, Love's law con - trols. What - ev - er race We bound our aim, God sets the pace. Al - ways the same, With Ev - ery di - rec - tion, ev - ery-where, Spir - it is there.

 Up - ward or down, be - low, a - bove, We meet with Love.
 en - ter toward what - ev - er goals, Love's law con - trols.
 in - stant and e - ter - nal grace, God sets the pace.

Psalms 139:7–10 / Hebrews 12:1. The words of this hymn are from a poem called “All-Presence,” printed in the November 18, 1972 issue of the Christian Science Sentinel.

WORDS: Peter J. Henniker-Heaton
 MUSIC: Kevin McCarter

CHAPEL HILL
 8.8.4.4.8.4.

Words © 1972 The Christian Science Board of Directors
 Music © 2008 Kevin McCarter